

NEW SOUTH WALES

Working with Children Check instructions

Ardoch is committed to protecting children's rights, safety and wellbeing and has a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of child abuse.

Note: NSW Working with Children Checks can take up to 4 weeks to be processed by the Department of Justice.

Apply as soon as possible

Already have a Working with Children Check?

1. Complete the Ardoch volunteer application form (and provide your WWC check number, expiry date and date of birth as part of the form).
 - o You can retrieve your Working with Children Check number here.
2. Ardoch will verify your check and no further action is needed by you

If you do not have a Working with Children Check

You will need to apply for a Working with Children Check online and then prove your identity at a Service NSW Centre. Information on how to apply can be found here.

Please read the proof of identity documents requirements carefully, to ensure you have what you need. You do not need to be an Australian citizen to apply; you just need to be able to prove your identity. Once you have the appropriate proof of identity documents, follow the steps below.

1. Visit the Working with Children Check NSW website and click 'apply'
2. When asked for the 'purpose of your check' please select 'Volunteer'.
3. When asked for the 'child related sector' you will be working in please select 'Education'.
4. Once you have completed the application form, you need to prove your identity at a Service NSW Centre with your email receipt to finalise your application within 28 days.
 - o You can find your nearest Service NSW location here
5. After you have received your WWCC, please email compliance@ardoch.org.au with your WWC number, so that we can verify your card.
